BAROMETER RISING is above all a novel of place and that place is Halifax, Nova Scotia in December 1917.

MacLennan is very

Halifax, Nova Scotia during World War I, and its interruption by the Halifax explosion. The narrative predominantly follows and pivots upon the romantic life of Penny Wain. The book had been difficult to publish as MacLennan had previously written regarding international themes, while Barometer Rising contained a decidedly nationalist overtone.
